

Cameron Moore JP

Civil Marriage Celebrant

Choose from a choice of colours that will embody your personalities in the creation of a sand ceremony memento. Each person should pick a colour that best suits them. Once the sand is mixed it will never be separated.

Brown: The colour of earth and wood, signifying a solid and reliable soul. Brown helps to create a comfortable and open relationship, it personifies credibility, solidity, strength, and maturity.

Blue: The colour of the ocean, symbolizing trust, loyalty, and ones dedication and commitment. Blue generates calming, tranquil, and a peaceful environment for an ever-lasting romance and relationship.

Red: The colour of love. Red ignites a warm, loving, and passionate relationship, which encourage excitement and intensity, emotions not to be forgotten!

Yellow: The colour of the sun, (meaning light) signifying consistency and joy! Yellow builds an optimistic, playful, positive disposition toward life, love and an ultimately a joyful relationship.

Green: The colour of nature, renewal and vigor. Green balances the forces of compassion, energy and wealth; leaving a lasting impression and a sense of wonder for a realistic and natural relationship.

Pink: The colour of happiness and tenderness. Pink is for the romantic softhearted soul that has a calm inner-self. Pink inspires a playful and happy relationship.

Orange: The colour of autumn and the sunset. Related to contentment, and wholesomeness; a relationship wrapped in orange will be safe, fulfilled and undeniably warm.

White: The colour of innocence and peace. A clean and sanctuary soul describes a white personality; uplifting and refreshing wisdom are emotions that are evoked in a white relationship.

Purple: The colour of loyalty, dignity and sophistication. Purple has unbelievable drive and passion; a very inventive soul chooses purple, this leads to a successful and prosperous relationship.